

All Posts

Subdeacon Nektarios, M.A. · 4 hours ago · 4 min read

Infiltrated: The Woke Death Cult Within the Clergy of World Orthodoxy

Subdeacon Nektarios, M.A.

In the wake of the horrendous assassination of Conservative Commentator Charlie Kirk—which left his wife Erika without a husband and their two children without their father—we have seen an explosion of disgusting social media posts across the internet. Thousands of cretins have been posting their vile, sub-human celebrations of this crime against Charlie Kirk simply because of his outspoken conservative political message.

No doubt, in the post-Obama and Biden United States—where Statism, Marxism, and “Transgender” political terrorism are now commonplace—we sadly expect nothing less from these corners of the internet or the leftist political spectrum, where death, demons, and Satan himself (literally) are idolized and worshiped. And this is exactly why the Orthodox Church is growing in the United States: because people are recognizing these demonic social and political trends and fleeing to Orthodoxy, where Christ reigns and traditionalism in all forms is the norm. Sadly, however, this too—within World Orthodoxy—has been changing over the years, in large part because of these liberal, boomer-age pseudo-bishops who in reality stand for nothing and believe in nothing other than their own creature comforts and social status. The Wokeism of U.S. politics has been creeping into World Orthodoxy for years, as seen in people like the flamboyant “priest” Christopher Calin of the OCA Cathedral in New York City, who came out as a strong supporter of the Democrat Party platform and its pro-abortion, pro-homosexual, and anti-Christian agenda. I wrote about this in my 2023 article The Orthodox Church vs. The Democrat Party: You Cannot Vote Democrat & Be An Orthodox Christian.

However, this week, in the aftermath of the unjustified slaying of Charlie Kirk by a demonic servant of anti-Christ, we have two so-called “Orthodox priests” from the Orthodox Church of America and the Antiochian Orthodox Archdiocese of Australia who have thrown their allegiance not into Christ and His Gospel but into their satanic political death cult—where, in essence, they say that Charlie Kirk deserved to be killed.

In a report by a user in the Facebook group “Ask an Orthodox Priest”—which itself is known for being anti-traditionalist—a member wrote:

Fathers Bless. I had a couple questions regarding a certain priest who is an admin for this group.

1. Who is Father John D'Alton's bishop, so I can report him for his gloating over and shows of satisfaction over Charlie Kirk's assassination? This is extremely distasteful behavior (distasteful is a sanitized word for how I am actually feeling).
2. At what point should a priest be kicked out of this group to not give further ‘wisdom’ to those who ask of it, if he relishes in the death of innocent people with a wife and beautiful children? Please let me know, thanks.

This question was prompted by a post from “Father” John D’Alton, a pseudo-priest of the Antiochian Orthodox Archdiocese of Australia. In this post, John D’Alton mocks the death of Charlie Kirk, saying:

“He ‘hated empathy’ and idolised guns. aha. He created this violence.”

What kind of sick “clergyman” would write something like this and feel that he is entirely justified before Christ, the Church, and the Faithful—unless he knows that his all-too-well-known coward bishops either support this or have no spine to suspend or defrock him?

In another comment on the same thread, a layperson, reacting in protest to yet another appalling remark from one of the “clergymen,” writes: “You can just say you’re glad he’s dead; it’s pretty clear you are.”

This time another so-called priest, “archimandrite” Juvenaly Repass from the schismatic and heretical Orthodox Church in America attempts to use Scripture to justify this horrendous crime against Charlie Kirk, saying: “The scripture says, ‘when the wicked perish, there is jubilation’ (Proverbs 11.10).”

In yet another thread we have a comment from another demonic death cult member who says:

Andrew Fedosov: I am very sorry he died. It would have been helpful to hear him tell us, gurgling through his own blood, how it feels to be rubbed out by the very weapons he defended. How “necessary deaths” to protect the 2A [2nd Amendment] includes his own.

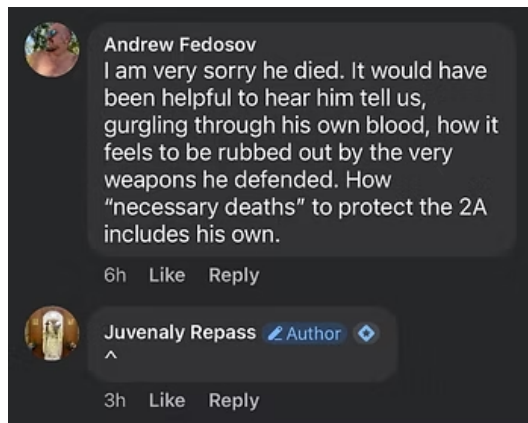

The same Priest of Satan, Juvenaly Repass, replies to the above statement with the caret symbol “^” which people often use in online comments or chats to point to or indicate agreement with the comment directly above theirs.

The real question is: what kind of degenerates are these World Orthodox jurisdictions ordaining? An even better question is: why would anyone want to be a member of organizations that not only promote and tolerate the adoption of schism and heresy by their clergy but now also entirely ignore their sickening, anti-Christian, death-cult comments?

Are all clergy within World Orthodoxy like this? Fortunately, they are not. For example, Father Josiah Trenham of the Antiochian Orthodox Archdiocese of America issued a statement of condolence for the Kirk family. What remains in question, however, is the long history of actions—or rather, the inaction—of their bishops in almost every case of heresy and extreme controversy, and their seemingly absent Orthodox mind.

It has long been time for those in these jurisdictions to flee from these false-teaching clergy—if only for their heresy alone—and now we can add this latest scandal to the long list of what is wrong with them.

Back to Top